- These Special regulations (IREX) for the SLOVENIJA 2019.

4 Exhibiting

Each exhibitor can participate in a given competitive class with only one exhibit (except for the literature class).

Each exhibit entered in competition must be the property of the exhibitor and will be included in the exhibition catalogue under his/her name. The exhibitor may exhibit using a pseudonym providing that his/her name and identity is known to the National commissioner and to the Organizing Committee.

5 Entry Forms and Acceptance

Exhibitors shall submit their Entry Forms, which must be accompanied by an introductory page, and if possible by a Synopsis, through the respective National Commissioners of their country, appointed by their National Federations. Entry Forms must reach Commissioner General no later than October 30, 2018.

Notification of acceptance of an exhibit and the number of frames allocated shall be sent via National Commissioners to each exhibitor by December 31, 2018 at the latest.

6 Participation Fee

The participation fee in competitive classes shall be EUR 17.50 per frame. The participation fee for Youth class and invited exhibits is waived. The entry fee for the literature class shall be EUR 13 for each entry.

7 Participants

Participation is open to all exhibitors who have their permanent residence in one of the regions affiliated to Alps-Adriatic Philately.

7.1 Restrictions for exhibits

The participation to the Alps-Adriatic Philately exhibition is restricted to those exhibits previously awarded a minimum of 70 points. Exhibits not shown yet, must be accompanied by a written statement from the National Commissioner confirming their proper quality. Exhibits previously three times or more awarded with 90 or more points at Rank I, FEPA or FIP exhibitions can not be shown in competitive classes.
